

Holiday Hill

Acres of fun. Well done.

Where planning a successful event is a picnic

A great choice for great times.

Whether your group is 50 or 5,000, whenever you're ready to get together, we have the spot that has it all together. Holiday Hill. Set amidst 200 acres of beautiful central Connecticut countryside, on the Cheshire/Prospect line, our private resort has everything you need to make a special event more memorable and enjoyable. Great activities. Great food. With over 50 years of experience, our great attention to detail ensures that your gathering will come off without a hitch, and without any hassles.

Let the games – and the bonding – begin.

The more engaged people are, the more fun they'll have. At Holiday Hill, we've made our resort an ideal place to create the kind of fun that brings people closer, rain or shine. With heated pools, a lake, numerous pavilions, activity tents, rock climbing wall, pony ring and playing fields, we're ready for anything and any weather conditions. There's something for everyone of any age to do, to see and to experience. In addition to offering virtually any activity you'd ever want, we can tailor activities to suit your individual needs.

So fun, you can taste it.

We know how to dish out great food, along with a healthy helping of fun. Just as there are so many good things to do at Holiday Hill, there's always something good to eat. From the time you arrive, our attentive staff makes sure the taste temptations keep coming. We take pride in the delicious, bountiful selection of food and beverage choices we offer. You may also customize your menu to make it as unique as your special get-together.

All-inclusive. All so easy.

When it comes to making your event effortless, other venues don't even come close. Our experience adds to your experience. We'll help you at every step, from planning your day and menu options to handling game and event coordination, prizes and any special activities you may wish. Because your price includes all food, entertainment and facilities that are part of your particular outing package, we even make it easy on your budget. We take care of parking, security, first aid and more, so you can take it easy and enjoy every minute of the day.

A great day can last a lifetime.

Our resort is open from spring through early fall, but it's always the right time to begin planning your next successful get-together.
